Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 3 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Takahashi et al.

Takahashi et al. teach:

Re claim 3:

a first cryptogram the wired logic circuit (col. 2 lines 56-67);

a second cryptogram having memory cells concerned with the use of the card;

changing means being the command decoder 20;

and determining means read as the terminal device.

Re claim 9:

storing means read as memory 100;

first cryptogram the wired logic circuit (col. 2 lines 56-67);

Second cryptogram having memory cells concerned with the use of the card;

changing means being the command decoder 20;

determining means read as the terminal device;

Art Unit: 3627

input means is read as the terminal device when it is being used to initialize the card as set forth in col. 4 lines 52-62.

The wherein clause is given no weight because there is new structure recited therein and hence is deemed merely functional.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
